

BLIND

words by Mac Powell
music by Third Day

Each and every single day
I was throwing life away with questions Searching for a better way Always looking in the wrong direction

My heart I could not trust 'Cause it lies to me too much And my mind just couldn't Understand it all chorus: How could I have been so blind to not see you

The more that I look the more I find You've led me to the truth
That I am nothing if I'm without you You opened my eyes and helped me to find How could I have been so blind

I have fallen once again Evidently made the wrong decision Stumbling in the dark Now I need you here to be my vision

My heart I cannot trust
'Cause it lies to me too much
And my mind just cannot Understand it all

You took my heart and you changed it With your words of life
You took my eyes and you opened them
And gave me sight

I hate to be, to be the one / Who's given up / And feels that all our hope is gone / But what I thought was a miracle / Just turned into the same old / Problem that it was / She longs for better days / She's always been afraid // chorus: It's a shame, oh it's a shame, oh it's a shame // That you are throwing your whole life away / It's a shame, oh it's a shame, oh it's a shame // I wonder if you're ever going to change / It's a shame // Ever since I can recall / She has been so afraid / Of you losing it all / What do you want / Do you even know /
You let her without leaving / You let her without swinging / She longs for better days / She's always been afraid /
And it is it worth the pain / We all have to endure / She longs for better days / She's always been afraid / Except for pain and sorrow / I'm praying that tomorrow / You will open up your eyes and see

IT'S A SHAME

words by Mac Powell
music by Third Day

Gave me something that I can believe and then I'll share it with the world for everyone to see Take away the darkness,
All the pain and sadness, I know it's you that put the light inside of me

chorus:

I believe in a faith that's strong I believe in a hope that carries on I believe in these things and more
Most of all,
I believe in love

If I had the strength to move a mountain I guess it would not mean much if I didn't have love
And this is what I really want you all to see
